The City Administrator called the roll to confirm the presence of a quorum. The following members were present:

Mayor Burt Ussery, Councilmembers; Justin Shore, Crystal Walter, Chad Pike, and Shirley Palmer-Witt. Tim Robben was absent

The following staff members were present via GoTo Meeting:

City Administrator Zollinger and Jared Dinwiddie.

3. Business

a. Approve Victory Pyrotechnics – Football Game Pyro Display

Cody Hanna with Victory Pyrotechnics is planning on a pyrotechnic display at the high school football game on Friday. According to city code Sec 14-46 all public displays of fireworks need to have council approval. Cody says this is not a traditional show. They will provide the national anthem pyro, team entrance effects, and scoring drive pyro through the end of the game. The entrance will utilize flame projectors, and the rest of the night will utilize 38MM debris-free single shots. No large-caliber mortars will be used. The entire display will be on the school's property. Per Resolution 03-2023 a Firework Discharge permit is $100.00. Cody is asking for this to be waived since this is for the School.

Councilmember Shore asked if we had enough rain to feel comfortable with a pyrotechnic display, Fire Chief Jared replied yes. No Further Discussion.

Motion: Shore moved; Pike seconded to approve the approve the fireworks display and waive the $100 permit fee for Victory Pyrotechnics football pyrotechnic display. Voted and passed unanimously.

4. Adjournment

Motion to adjourn the meeting: Robben aye; Shore aye; Pike aye; Palmer-Witt aye to adjourn the meeting.. The meeting adjourned at 6:02 PM
